IN THE DISTRICT COURT

v.

44TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

LAURA S. WASSMER and STEPHEN B. HOPPER, Defendants.

DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

DEFENDANTS’ SECOND AMENDED ANSWER, SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS TO PLAINTIFF’S ORIGINAL PETITION, AND COUNTERCLAIM FOR PARTITION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY OR PROCEEDS FROM SALE

Defendants and Counter-Plaintiffs Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen B. Hopper file this their Second Amended Answer and Special Exceptions to Plaintiff’s Original Petition (the “Original Petition”) and Counterclaim for Partition of Personal Property or Proceeds from Sale, and in support thereof would respectfully show the Court the following:

I.
GENERAL DENIAL

1. Pursuant to Rule 92 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants hereby generally deny every allegation in Plaintiff’s Original Petition. Defendants demand strict proof of every allegation set forth in Plaintiff’s Original Petition, and any supplement or amendment thereto, by a preponderance of the evidence or by clear and convincing evidence in accordance with the applicable standards of proof.

II.
AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

2. Defendants assert that Plaintiff's claims and allegations as set forth in her Original Petition are barred by Plaintiff's unclean hands.

3. Defendants assert that Plaintiff's claims and allegations as set forth in her Original Petition are barred by Plaintiff's failure to mitigate her damages.

4. Defendants assert that Plaintiff's claims and allegations as set forth in her Original Petition with respect to breach of contract are barred because no such contract exists between Plaintiff and the Defendants.

5. If either Defendant is found liable for exemplary damages, those damages must be capped under Texas law and the Texas and U.S. Constitutions.

6. The imposition of exemplary damages here would violate Defendants' rights under the Texas and U.S. Constitutions.

III.
SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS

7. Defendants specially except to Plaintiff's Original Petition, paragraphs no. V.4 and VI.3, and asks the Court to require Plaintiff to specify the maximum amount of damages that Plaintiff claims.

8. Defendants specially except to Plaintiff's Original Petition because the pleadings ask for attorney fees in paragraph No. D.2 with respect to Plaintiff's "other causes of action" but do not specify which statute makes them available in this type of suit.

9. Defendants specially except to Plaintiff's Original Petition, Section V—Count 1: Breach of Contract, because Plaintiff did not plead all elements of her cause of action for breach of contract. Specifically, the pleadings for breach of contract did not include the following elements: (a) that there is a valid, enforceable contract (see, e.g., Petras v. Criswell, 248 S.W.3d 471, 477 (Tex.App.—Dallas 2008, no pet.)); (b) that Plaintiff is a proper party to sue for breach of such contract (see, e.g., Foley v. Daniel, 346 S.W.3d 687, 690 (Tex.App.—El Paso 2009, no pet.)); and (c) that Plaintiff performed, tendered performance of, or was excused from performing its contractual obligations (see, e.g., Foley, 346 S.W.3d at 690).

10. Defendants specially except to Plaintiff's Original Petition, Section VI—Count 2: Specific Performance, because such section sets forth merely a remedy and not a cause of action recognizable under Texas law.

11. Defendants specially except to the statement above Section II of Plaintiff's Original Petition that "All Facts Below are Uncontested or Incontestible."

12. For these reasons, Defendants ask the Court to set their special exceptions for hearing and, after the hearing, sustain their special exceptions and order Plaintiff to replead and cure her pleading defects and, if Plaintiff does not cure her defects, strike Plaintiff's pleading.

IV.
COUNTERCLAIM FOR PARTITION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY
OR PROCEEDS FROM SALE

Discovery Control Plan

13. Discovery in this matter is to be conducted under Level 3, pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 190.4.

Parties

14. Defendant and Counter-Plaintiff Laura S. Wassmer is an individual not residing in Texas, but has entered an appearance in this case through counsel.

15. Defendant and Counter-Plaintiff Stephen B. Hopper is an individual not residing Texas, but has entered an appearance in this case through counsel.

16. Plaintiff and Counter-Defendant Jo N. Hopper is an individual residing in Dallas County, Texas. Service is not necessary on Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant because she has entered an appearance in this case through her counsel.

Jurisdiction and Venue

17. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this counterclaim pursuant to Tex. Prop. Code § 23.001, et seq., and because the damages sought by Counter-Plaintiffs are within the jurisdictional limits of the Court.

18. The Court has personal jurisdiction over the Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant because she is a resident of the State of Texas and has agreed to jurisdiction of this Court by filing her original claims in this Court.

19. Venue of these counterclaims is proper in Dallas County, Texas, because the property subject to the lawsuit is located in Dallas County, Texas, and because the counterclaims arise from the same set of underlying facts as the claims forming the basis of Plaintiff's Original Petition.

Factual Background

20. Each Defendant is the owner of an undivided $\frac{1}{4}$ interest in the personal property listed on Exhibit 1 attached hereto. Plaintiff is the owner of an undivided $\frac{1}{2}$ interest in such personal property. Such personal property was conveyed to Plaintiff and Defendants on February 2, 2015 pursuant to that certain Independent Administrator's Assignment of Household Furnishings, Jewelry and Personal Effects attached hereto as Exhibit 2, that certain Independent Administrator's Assignment of Art attached hereto as Exhibit 3, and that certain Independent Administrator's Assignment – 5000 Shares of Pointserve, Inc. attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

21. Such personal property is the sole property of Plaintiff and Defendants and is held in undivided interests among them. Such personal property is not subject to the jurisdiction of any other court or part of any probate proceeding.

COUNT 1: Suit for Partition or, in the Alternative, for Sale of Property

22. The factual allegations set forth in paragraphs 13-21 are incorporated by reference as if fully set forth herein.

23. Defendants seek a partition of the personal property set forth on Exhibit 1 attached hereto. Alternatively, if the Court does not find a fair and equitable partition of such personal property can be made in kind, Defendants seek a sale of such personal property by order of the Court and the distribution of the net proceeds of any such sale be provided $\frac{1}{4}$ to each Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff and $\frac{1}{2}$ to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant.

Prayer

WHEREFORE, Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen B. Hopper request that Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant take nothing on her claims and that, upon final hearing, Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs have judgment against Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant that:

- A. Confirms the value of the personal property set forth on Exhibit 1 attached hereto, and determines whether a fair and equitable partition of such property can be made and, if so, makes an allotment in kind of $\frac{1}{4}$ of such property to each Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff and $\frac{1}{2}$ of such property to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant;
- B. Alternatively, in the event the Court determines that a fair and equitable partition of such property cannot be made in kind, orders that such property be sold according to the law and the proceeds of the sale, after expense of sale, be distributed $\frac{1}{4}$ to each Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff and $\frac{1}{2}$ to Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant;

- C. Awards any actual damages, along with pre- and post-judgment interest, to Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs;
- D. Awards to Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and costs;
- E. Awards to Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs all costs of court; and
- F. Awards to Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs all other relief to which Defendants/Counter-Plaintiffs may be entitled.

Respectfully submitted,

EXHIBIT A

Assignment of Household Furnishings, Jewelry and Personal Effects Exhibit A Property

For information only: By separate assignments dated July 31, 2013, the Independent Administrator assigned all tangible personal property located at 5604 N. U.S. Highway 69 in Pollok, Texas and all tangible personal property located at Suite 305, Richardson Commerce Centre, 13650 TI Blvd, to Jo N. Hopper, Laura Wassmer, and Stephen Hopper. None of these previously assigned properties are the subject of this assignment.

The properties subject to this assignment that were the community tangible personal property items of Max D. Hopper and Jo N. Hopper are described in three appraisal reports: (1) the appraisal report of JLA Treasures (Carol Matesic) dated October 20, 2010 of tangible personal property located at 9 Robledo, Dallas Texas 75230; (2) the addendum to the October 20, 2010 appraisal report dated November 17, 2010; and (3) a supplemental to the October 20, 2010 appraisal report of March 6, 2011 (collectively, the "Appraisal"). Certain items of property addressed in the amended appraisal report and the supplemental appraisal report modify or add to the original report dated October 20, 2010. The Appraisals are incorporated into this assignment by reference.

The Appraisal lists property having an aggregate total value $313,105. The Appraisal identifies and values different classes of property consisting of Art ($195,510), Needlepoint and Beading ($27,110), Max D. Hopper's separate property ($824), and Jo N. Hopper's separate property ($2,326), all of which are eliminated from the Appraisal for purposes of identifying general household tangible personal property being assigned as property described on this Exhibit A. Those remaining general household properties have an appraised value of $87,335. These assigned properties were located at 9 Robledo Drive at the date of Max D. Hopper's death.

This assignment also includes Needlepoint and Beading not previously purchased by Jo N. Hopper.

INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATOR'S ASSIGNMENT OF HOUSEHOLD FURNISHINGS, JEWELRY, PERSONAL EFFECTS
Estate of Max D. Hopper

Max D. Hopper ("Decedent"), a resident of Dallas County, Texas, died intestate on January 25, 2010.

An Application for Independent Administration Pursuant to Texas Probate Code §145(e) and for Waiver of Bond Pursuant to §145(p) was filed April 28, 2010 in Cause No. PR-10-1517-3, In Re: Estate of Max D. Hopper, Deceased, Dallas County Probate Court No. 3, and Judge Michael E. Miller signed an order appointing JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as Independent Administrator of the Estate of Max D. Hopper on June 30, 2010. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. qualified to serve as Independent Administrator on June 30, 2010 and has continuously served as the Independent Administrator of the Estate of Max D. Hopper (the "Estate") through the date of this instrument.

At the date of death of the Decedent, the Decedent and Jo N. Hopper owned as part of their community property certain items of household furnishings, jewelry and personal effects, as are described in the appraisal documents described on Exhibit A to this assignment (the "Exhibit A Property"), and Max D. Hopper owned as his separate personal property the items described on Exhibit B to this assignment ("the "Exhibit B Property").

The Decedent was survived by his wife, Jo N. Hopper, and by two adult children from a prior marriage, Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen Hopper.

In this assignment, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., acting as Independent Administrator of the Estate, and not in its corporate capacity, is referred to as the "Assignor". In order to evidence the Independent Administrator's release of Mrs. Hopper's interest in Exhibit A Property from its control as Independent Administrator of the Estate, the Assignor by this instrument does hereby release to Jo N. Hopper her undivided one-half community property interest in the Exhibit A Property.

The Assignor also hereby ASSIGNS AND CONVEYS all of the Estate's right, title and interest in and to the Exhibit A Property (being an undivided one-half interest in such property), in equal undivided one-half interests to each of Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen Hopper.

The Assignor also ASSIGNS AND CONVEYS all of the Estate's right, title and interest in and to the Exhibit B Property in equal undivided one-third interests to each of Jo N. Hopper, Laura S. Wassmer, and Stephen Hopper.

The Exhibit A Property and Exhibit B Property is being released and conveyed "AS IS", and the Administrator makes no representation and gives no warranties whatsoever as to title or condition of such property, all of which is presently in the physical custody of Jo N. Hopper or Laura M. Wassmer or Stephen Hopper.

EXECUTED as of the 7th day of February, 2015.

EXHIBIT A

Assignment of Household Furnishings, Jewelry and Personal Effects Exhibit A Property

For information only: By separate assignments dated July 31, 2013, the Independent Administrator assigned all tangible personal property located at 5604 N. U.S. Highway 69 in Pollok, Texas and all tangible personal property located at Suite 305, Richardson Commerce Centre, 13650 TI Blvd, to Jo N. Hopper, Laura Wassmer, and Stephen Hopper. None of these previously assigned properties are the subject of this assignment.

The properties subject to this assignment that were the community tangible personal property items of Max D. Hopper and Jo N. Hopper are described in three appraisal reports: (1) the appraisal report of JLA Treasures (Carol Matesic) dated October 20, 2010 of tangible personal property located at 9 Robledo, Dallas Texas 75230; (2) the addendum to the October 20, 2010 appraisal report dated November 17, 2010; and (3) a supplemental to the October 20, 2010 appraisal report of March 6, 2011 (collectively, the "Appraisal"). Certain items of property addressed in the amended appraisal report and the supplemental appraisal report modify or add to the original report dated October 20, 2010. The Appraisals are incorporated into this assignment by reference.

The Appraisal lists property having an aggregate total value $313,105. The Appraisal identifies and values different classes of property consisting of Art ($195,510), Needlepoint and Beading ($27,110), Max D. Hopper's separate property ($824), and Jo N. Hopper's separate property ($2,326), all of which are eliminated from the Appraisal for purposes of identifying general household tangible personal property being assigned as property described on this Exhibit A. Those remaining general household properties have an appraised value of $87,335. These assigned properties were located at 9 Robledo Drive at the date of Max D. Hopper's death.

This assignment also includes Needlepoint and Beading not previously purchased by Jo N. Hopper.

This assignment also includes Jewelry, including two watches and miscellaneous cuff links and tie tacks shown in Item D-55 of the Second Amended Inventory, Appraisement and List of Claims.

INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATOR'S ASSIGNMENT OF ART
Estate of Max D. Hopper

Max D. Hopper ("Decedent"), a resident of Dallas County, Texas, died intestate on January 25, 2010.

An Application for Independent Administration Pursuant to Texas Probate Code §145(e) and for Waiver of Bond Pursuant to §145(p) was filed April 28, 2010 in Cause No. PR-10-1517-3, In Re: Estate of Max D. Hopper, Deceased, Dallas County Probate Court No. 3, and Judge Michael E. Miller signed an order appointing JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as Independent Administrator of the Estate of Max D. Hopper on June 30, 2010. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. qualified to serve as Independent Administrator on June 30, 2010 and has continuously served as the Independent Administrator of the Estate of Max D. Hopper (the "Estate") through the date of this instrument.

Attached as Exhibit A to this assignment is a listing and valuation of objects of art, a portion of which constituted part of the community estate of the Decedent and Jo N. Hopper at the time of the Decedent's death, a portion of which were the separate property of Jo N. Hopper, and a portion of which were the separate property of the Decedent.

The community property of the Decedent and Jo N. Hopper consisted of the 103 Items listed in Exhibit A less (i) Jo N. Hopper's separate property (Items 58, 59, 60 and 61), and (ii) Max D. Hopper's separate property (Items 19, 24, 25, 73, 74 ,89 and 97) described on Exhibit A (collectively the "Community Property Art").

The separate property of Max D. Hopper consisted of Items 19, 24, 25, 73, 74, 89 and 97 described on Exhibit A (collectively the "Separate Property Art").

The Decedent was survived by his wife, Jo N. Hopper, and by two adult children from a prior marriage, Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen Hopper.

In this assignment, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., acting as Independent Administrator of the Estate, and not in its corporate capacity, is referred to as the "Assignor". In order to evidence the Independent Administrator's release of Jo N. Hopper's interest in Community Property Art from its control as Independent Administrator of the Estate, the Assignor by this instrument does hereby release to Jo N. Hopper her undivided one-half interest in Community Property Art.

The Assignor also hereby ASSIGNS AND CONVEYS all of the Estate's right, title and interest in Community Property Art (being an undivided one-half interest in such Community Property Art), in equal undivided one-half interests to each of Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen Hopper.

The Assignor also ASSIGNS AND CONVEYS all of the Estate's right, title and interest in and to the Decedent's separate properties described on Exhibit A in equal undivided one-third interests to each of Jo N. Hopper, Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen Hopper.

The properties subject to this assignment are being released and conveyed "AS IS", and the Administrator makes no representation and gives no warranties whatsoever as to title or condition of such property, all of which is presently in the physical custody of one or more of Jo N. Hopper or Laura S. Wassmer or Stephen Hopper.

EXECUTED as of the 2nd day of February, 2015.

INDEPENDENT ADMINISTRATOR'S ASSIGNMENT

5000 Shares of Pointserve, Inc.

Estate of Max D. Hopper

Max D. Hopper ("Decedent"), a resident of Dallas County, Texas, died intestate on January 25, 2010.

An Application for Independent Administration Pursuant to Texas Probate Code §145(e) and for Waiver of Bond Pursuant to §145(p) was filed April 28, 2010 in Cause No. PR-10-1517-3, In Re: Estate of Max D. Hopper, Deceased, Dallas County Probate Court No. 3, and Judge Michael E. Miller signed an order appointing JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as Independent Administrator of the Estate of Max D. Hopper on June 30, 2010. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. qualified to serve as Independent Administrator on June 30, 2010 and has continuously served as the Independent Administrator of the Estate of Max D. Hopper (the "Estate") through the date of this instrument.

At the date of death of the Decedent, the Decedent and Jo N. Hopper owned as part of their community property 5000 shares of the common stock of Pointserve, Inc. (the "Stock").

The Decedent was survived by his wife, Jo N. Hopper, and by two adult children from a prior marriage, Laura S. Wassmer, and Stephen Hopper.

In this assignment, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., acting as Independent Administrator of the Estate, and not in its corporate capacity, is referred to as the "Assignor". In order to evidence the Independent Administrator's release of Mrs. Hopper's interest in the Stock from its control as Independent Administrator of the Estate, the Assignor by this instrument does hereby release to Jo N. Hopper her undivided one-half community property interest in the Stock.

The Assignor also hereby ASSIGNS AND CONVEYS all of the Estate's right, title and interest in and to the Stock (being an undivided one-half interest in such Stock), in equal undivided one-half interests to each of Laura S. Wassmer and Stephen Hopper.

The Assignor has been informed, and does believe, that the cost of reregistering the Stock in three names would vastly exceed the market value of the Stock. Therefore, the Assignor is delivering this Assignment of the Stock to the assignees, coupled with the Assignor's agreement to execute such stock powers or other instruments of transfer as may be reasonably requested by any of the assignees, but without any agreement to pay transfer or reregistration fees that may be charged by the issuer as a condition to effectuating any such transfer on the books of the company, which the Assignor declines to pay. The Assignor further agrees to promptly remit to each of Jo N. Hopper and each assignee his or her share of any distributions received by Assignor with respect to the Stock after the date of this assignment and prior to the reregistration of the Stock in the name of Jo N. Hopper and/or the assignees.

EXECUTED as of the 2nd day of February, 2015.
