Re: In re: Estate of Max D. Hopper, Deceased; Jo N. Hopper v. JPMorgan Chase, N.A., Stephen B. Hopper and Laura Wassmer, No. PR-11-3238-3; In the Probate Court No. 3, Dallas County, Texas/No Need for Hearing on October 18, 2011/ Objection

Dear Ms. McKay:

Per your telephone call and request a moment ago, please accept this letter as our firm's position as to the wisdom of the hearing tomorrow. We assert no hearing should take place and would object to such a hearing.

Our client, Mrs. Max D. Hopper, Plaintiff in the referenced case, requests that no hearing be held tomorrow before Judge Peyton in regard to the Special Exceptions requested and set by Defendant JPMorgan Chase Bank, the Independent Administrator, for all the reasons set forth in our letter hand-delivered today to Judge Peyton (and served contemporaneously on opposing counsel).

We also do not think that any hearing needs to be held tomorrow on the subject of the Independent Administrator's Motion to Compel Mediation, as that has already been argued before the Court and we believe Judge Peyton indicated on October 7th he could rule on that Motion/request without further argument by the parties. We urge him to do so.

If you need anything else, please let us know.

Please advise us at your very earliest convenience whether any hearing will take place tomorrow, or not.

Respectfully submitted,

James Albert Jennings
